

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, adequate highway transportation facilities are essential to the economic, social and cultural well-being of the citizens of the State of South Dakota; and

WHEREAS, our present highway development program will assure safer, more convenient mobility for all motorists, and more efficient movement of the goods and services upon which American life depends; and

WHEREAS, modern engineering practices of planning highways in relationship to the quality of the total environment enhance the areas through which they pass and make more accessible the places of great scenic, historic and recreational value; and

WHEREAS, the motorists of the State of South Dakota support this program through their state and federal highway-user taxes, and should take advantage of opportunities to become better informed of the progress and planning for highway development;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frank L. Farrar, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim the period September 20-26, 1970, as in South Dakota, and invite all citizens to consider during the period the fundamental role of adequate highway transportation facilities in their daily pursuits.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 1st day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seventy.
